

DIMITRIS RENTOUMIS

Dimitris Rentoumis (b.1980) is a visual artist based in Greece and the Netherlands. In his practice, Rentoumis examines specific aspects of drawing, sculpture and the moving image in close relation to notions such as materiality, vulnerability, and ephemerality. He is creating series of double-sided drawings, large sculptural installations, and abstract video projections while he has experimented with writing on the side of his studio works. He studied painting in Athens School of Fine Arts and he completed his master degree in the Netherlands. He is also a Van Eyck alumnus (2016-2017) and additionally, he has worked as an art educator the previous years.

dimitrisrentoumis.tumblr.com

Basel, 2018, Frozen Education